The Commission may wish to consider convening a forum of interested parties to develop proposed rules. These new rules would then provide the focal point for general comments from the industry.

Revision of unnecessarily burdensome rules regarding directional antennas is in keeping with the Commission's "Review of the Technical Assignment Criteria for the AM Broadcast Service", MM Docket No. 87-267, where improvements in the AM broadcasting service are sought. This proposal reflects the need to provide streamlined and less costly verification of
